Dad's Weekend Out – Wings and Wheels

Classic Automobiles and Airplanes Displayed In Chantilly

Two special events to celebrate Father's Day weekend are coming to Chantilly. Enjoy a combination of wings and wheels at two popular locations. On Saturday, June 16, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., visit the Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center at the National Air and Space Museum for the annual Family Day Fly-in. Admission is free and parking is $12 per car. Call 202-633-1000 for more information. Then, on Sunday, June 17, bring dad to the 34th Antique Car Show at Sully Historic Site from 10 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Co-sponsored by the Fairfax County Park Authority and the Model A Ford Club of America, the annual car show features cars, trucks and motorcycles through 1972. Admission is $8 for adults, $7 for seniors and $5 for children. Free parking is available on site.

With more than 400 antique and classic vehicles filling Sully's grounds, this is the largest car show in Northern Virginia. Trophies will be awarded in all classes. You can purchase the car of your dreams at the Car Corral, watch a Model T take-apart demonstration, or find the perfect auto accessory. You'll find crafts and antiques in the Flea Market as well. The 2007 limited edition collectable car show pins will be available from the Car Club for $5 each.

Enjoy a delicious lunch from our food court. Rock 'n roll to music of the 50s with Jumpin' Jupiter and swing with the Fairfax Symphony Dixieland Band.

Included in admission is a guided tour of the first floor of the 1794 home of Richard Bland Lee, Northern Virginia's first congressman.

Sully is located in Chantilly, VA, on Route 28 northbound, ¼ mile north of Route 50 and four miles south of the Dulles Toll Road.
